Friday & Saturday November 27-28, 2026

Ormond Beach, Florida • The Birthplace of Speed

Our feature car this year is a 1964 Chevrolet Corvair Monza Spyder, Lagoon Aqua, with a white convertable top, owned by club members Dan & Donna Kidder. They purchased the car in 2022. The prior owner from Georgia had owned the car for 42 years.

This show and parade is for 2001 and Older vehicles (no custom/hot rods).
Trailer parking is provided at the Casements for both the parade and show.
For special trailer parking needs contact registration chairman in advance.

The Gaslight parade departs from The Casements at the foot of the Granada Bridge at 7:00 p.m. on Friday and travels east on Granada Blvd. (SR 40) and south on Atlantic Ave. (A1A) to the delight of spectators.

The car show on Saturday is at Fortunato Park on the northest side of the Granada Bridge along the Halifax River. T-shirts will be given away for the first 50 pre-registered cars. First place awards of fifty dollars cash will be given for 16 classes of cars.
